

Trapper, 57, Shoots It Out With Posse; Kills Self With Last Shell

CRYSTAL FALLS (P)—A trapper, who sheriff's men said "lived like a coyote," shot it out with a posse from a cabin in the lonely woods of upper Michigan Tuesday, saving his last shell for himself.

Sheriff Edward P. Fandri said Emil Schroeder, 57, committed suicide firing his last shot into his head, after wounding one of the officers who came to get him.

Harry Urban, a 70-year-old turnkey at Iron County jail, was shot in the elbow and thigh. Municipal Hospital doctors said only the elbow injury was serious.

The cabin was eight miles east of Crystal Falls in Iron County.

Fandri said Schroeder, a 1952 parolee from Wisconsin's Waupun State Penitentiary, had been wanted on a Michigan warrant since September when he shot at his employer, who had fired him.

Schroeder was charged with assault with a deadly weapon. The employer, a logger, had hired

Schroeder to cut pulp wood, but said he fired him when Schroeder made false reports on his work.

The sheriff said Schroeder lived off the woods, trapping and selling pelts, but always dodging police.

Fandri said Schroeder telephoned him at noon yesterday and gave away where he was going.

Fandri, Urban and two state troopers went to the cabin and told Schroeder to come out. They were answered by gunfire.

About 15 shots were exchanged. Then the officers entered the cabin. Schroeder was dead. Fandri said Schroeder had served 10 years in the Wisconsin prison for the shooting of two wardens near Spread Eagle, Florence County, Wis., near the Michigan state line.

Senate Debates $1100 Pay Raise For Legislators

LANSING (P)—A pay raise for legislators and the Conlin plan to revise the sales tax diversion were among controversial measures approved in the House as the chamber cleared its calendar for today's bill deadline.

Bills not approved by tonight in the house of origin are dead.

Left for today's (1 p.m.) session were a bill calling a constitutional convention to revise the state constitution and 12 non-controversial measures.

Boosted To $5,000

A bill to pay legislators a total of $5,000 a year after next Jan. 1 passed the House 55-41 and went to the Senate. The lawmakers now get $3,900.

The principal opponent, Rep. Adrian De Boon (R-Owosso) said that the people "gave us a blank check when they permitted us to set our own salaries. I urge you not to misuse their generosity."

Rep. W. Reed Orr (R-Battle Creek), sponsor of the bill, said the people would approve paying enough money to attract and keep capable representatives. Orr has announced he is not a candidate for reelection.

Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton), had to accept two changes he considered weakening to his sales tax diversion plan before he could get a virtually unanimous vote in favor of the proposed constitutional amendment.

Sales Tax Limited

One amendment approved 55-37, would limit the sales tax to the present three per cent. It was proposed by Rep. Ed Carey (D-Detroit) who said some objections to the plan were that it might lead to raising the sales tax.

The other amendment would permit municipalities to count half of the inmates and patients of state institutions in their population totals. The municipalities' share of the diversion is based on population.

Conlin's plan, now before the Senate, would base school aid appropriations on current sales tax collections instead of those of two years previous.

The House passed a bill to limit the work week of firemen to 63½ hours instead of the present 73½ hours.

Defeated were bills to:

Require safety belts in passenger cars sold 90 days after the legislative session.

Prevent the Public Service Commission from approving rate increases for telephone companies whose service does not meet commission standards.

Youth, 18, Mum On Crime Spree

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (P)—A husky Michigan youth refused Tuesday to discuss a four-state crime spree which ended here in the death of one buddy and serious injury to a second.

Duane Reger, 18, sat tight-lipped during more than an hour of questioning by sheriff's deputies.

Reger admitted only that he and his companions escaped Feb. 14 from the Cassidy Lake farm of Ionia Reformatory, taking a state-owned automobile with them. In the three weeks since, a series of burglaries and armed holdups were charged to the trio.

Reger was at the wheel of a stolen car which eluded a dozen state police during a 50-mile chase before crashing Monday night.

Killed was 18-year-old Ronald Taylor, Midland, Mich.

The third occupant, Dave Totten, 20, Fenton, Mich., was taken to Doctors' Hospital in Flagstaff with a brain concussion and an arm injury. He was still unconscious Tuesday afternoon.

Wedding Costs Benny $25,000

By BOB THOMAS

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (P)—Joan Benny and Seth Baker embarked on a Hawaiian honeymoon today and her father, Jack Benny, faced an estimated $25,000 bill for one of the most fabulous weddings in Hollywood history.

Benny, wearing white tie, tails and glasses, gave his 19-year-old adopted daughter in marriage Tuesday night to the 26-year-old New York stock broker before a crowd of stars of stage, TV and movies. Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin performed the double-ring ceremony and advised the couple to "forget about the tinsel of life and live for the good things."

Billed as a tightwad on his radio and TV programs, Benny spared no expense in the Beverly Hills Hotel wedding. White lilacs were flown from Holland. Designer Don Loper, who staged the affair, flew to France to arrange for an exquisite weave of brocaded white satin for the bride's gown.

The wedding went off without a hitch. The principals faced news cameras before the ceremony and after.

Benny played it straight. He smiled weakly and made some attempts at humor, but he seemed nervous in his role as the doting father. He even resisted the temptation to join the orchestra of 10 violins which serenaded the reception with "Love in Bloom."

House OK Predicted Today For Slash In Excise Taxes

Sen. McCarthy May Lose Spot In Headlines

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (P)—One of the most highly placed Republicans, with the understanding his name would not be used, has indicated administration strategy is "to get McCarthy out of the headlines and get our story across."

This may take some doing since the Wisconsin Republican has a sharp sense of news and news timing. For instance: if anyone cracks at him, he usually replies at once so the attack and the reply appear at the same time.

Timing Is Fast

Last week President Eisenhower rebuked McCarthy for his tactics with witnesses, although without naming him. And McCarthy within one hour—an example of his fast timing—told Eisenhower in effect he'd handle witnesses as he saw fit.

Eisenhower has been criticized, particularly by Adlai Stevenson, for not taking a stronger stand on McCarthy. A stronger stand might have deflated McCarthy but it also might have angered him and split the party into factions.

Saturday night in a Miami speech Stevenson criticized Eisenhower, his administration, and McCarthy.

McCarthy and the Republican National Committee both demanded time for a reply to Stevenson. The networks, which last fall gave McCarthy equal time to reply to former President Truman, said "No" to McCarthy and "Yes" to the Republican committee.

Networks Stand Pat

McCarthy said the networks would give him the time or they'd learn what the law is. The law says candidates for public office be given "equal opportunities" on the air. But McCarthy is not now a candidate.

The networks didn't budge.

FCC member Robert E. Lee said he thought it a square deal for the networks to give the Republican party time, instead of McCarthy, to reply to Stevenson.

"McCarthy's my friend," Lee said, "but in this case it seems I would have to say: 'Look, pal, it seems like a square deal to me....'"

"If that's the rule," McCarthy said, "the rule has got to be changed."

Stevenson's Jibes At GOP Nonsense, Eisenhower Avers

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (P)—President Eisenhower tackled two hot issues today by 1 describing as nonsense the Democratic charge that the Republican party is a divided camp and (2) announcing that he will speak to the nation on taxes.

In a far-ranging news conference, Eisenhower also said he agreed generally with what Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.) said Monday in a Senate speech. Flanders accused Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) of trying to shatter the Republican party; he also said he found much to praise as well as deplore in McCarthy's activities.

Quotes Permitted

The President used the word "nonsense," permitting direct quotation, in commenting on Adlai Stevenson's charge that the Republicans are split "half McCarthy and half Eisenhower."

Eisenhower's announcement of a speech on his tax program came amid efforts in Congress to cut taxes more than the administration thinks can be done safely at this time.

He said he would discuss his tax program on both television and radio, probably next week. He said the speech to the people will deal with the general philosophy of the program.

On the other matters, the President:

1. Declared he sees no particular need for TV and radio networks to grant free time to anyone other than vice president Nixon for a reply to Stevenson's criticism of the Republicans. McCarthy is demanding time to make a reply of his own to what Stevenson, the 1952 Democratic presidential nominee, said about him.

2. Declared emphatically that the United States never will become involved in any war unless such a step results from constitutional processes. He made that reply when asked what would happen if any of the Americans stationed in Indochina as technicians should be captured.

3. Said his primary interest, during all his years in the Army, and since, has been for the security of the United States. That was in

Train Passengers For North May Ride Ferry To St. Ignace

LANSING (P)—Passengers going from Mackinaw City to Marquette would board their trains on the northern side of the Straits, under a proposal to be considered by the State Public Service Commission.

Train passengers now get aboard at Mackinaw City and are ferried with the trains across the Straits.

The Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic Railroad plans to carry passengers buying tickets on South Shore across the Straits by state ferry and have them board a train at St. Ignace.

The company plans to file formal application for the change soon with the public service commission.

Commission sources said little opposition is expected because the change would make for better train service.

Labor Unions With Red Label Are Fading Out

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (P)—A handful of labor unions ousted from the CIO more than four years ago on grounds of Communist domination are in trouble and fading fast—even before Congress gets very far in efforts to curb Red-run unions.

The workers themselves seem to be abandoning them as whole blocs shift into CIO or AFL-CIO unions.

Congress is studying proposals to empower the Subversive Activities Control Board to label Communist-dominated unions and to deny them the legal right to operate until Communists are removed from leadership.

Networks Stand Pat

McCarthy said the networks would give him the time or they'd learn what the law is. The law says candidates for public office be given "equal opportunities" on the air. But McCarthy is not now a candidate.

The networks didn't budge.

FCC member Robert E. Lee said he thought it a square deal for the networks to give the Republican party time, instead of McCarthy, to reply to Stevenson.

"If that's the rule," McCarthy said, "the rule has got to be changed."

Opposition In Senate

Senate leaders were arranging to send the bill to the Judiciary Committee where they believed there was enough opposition to bottle it up. Normally the bill would go to the Liquor Committee.

The measure survived one and a half hours of House debate. The suggestion of Rep. Harry J. Phillips (R-Port Huron), majority leader, that it be quietly interred was never even made in the form of a motion.

Rep. John J. McCune (R-East Lansing), the sponsor, refused to permit the burial in exchange for chairman of a study committee to draw up a new version for the 1955 session.

Congressional Attacked

"If we appointed a study committee, the people would say the Legislature has dodged another issue," he said.

Air Service Speeds Mail

Experimental airlift of first class mail started in Escanaba today and 62 pounds of first class mail, in addition to 17 pounds of regular airmail, arrived on North Central Airline's flight No. 343 from Detroit, Lansing and Grand Rapids at 11:44 a.m. Twelve pounds of first class mail were dispatched north to Iron Mountain, Marquette and Houghton.

Southbound flight No. 342, leaving Escanaba at 8:03 p.m., will also carry first class mail. These are the only two flights authorized thus far to carry first class mail at regular mail rates. A heavy mailing from Escanaba southbound is anticipated, including newspapers.

The airline has been authorized to carry first class mail on an experimental basis for one year. The airline receives no additional revenue for the service. Flight subsidies are reduced proportionately with the increased revenue for mail transportation.

In the initial flight today were several prominent postal officials. They included Malcolm Clarke, general superintendent of Postal Transportation service, Cleveland; Victor B. Galloway, district superintendent, Detroit; and Melvin E. Nelson, assistant general superintendent of Postal Transportation service, St. Paul.

It is reported that approximately 100 postoffices in the Upper Peninsula will be served by the experimental airlift service, speeding delivery of first class mail by as much as 24 hours.

Hospital Plans Not Abandoned

Rev. John Weishar, diocesan director of hospitals for Sisters of the Third Order of St. Francis, Peoria, said Tuesday that plans for expansion of St. Francis Hospital in Escanaba are far from abandoned.

Fr. Weishar reported in a telephone conversation with Hugh Grow, secretary of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, that the situation regarding the Escanaba hospital is about the same as has been encountered in all other hospital improvement projects undertaken by the Third Order in other cities at this stage of the program.

Weishar admitted that there are financial problems still to be met but indicated that he felt this problem was not unusual and not insurmountable.

Fr. Weishar expects to be in Escanaba Saturday and it is anticipated that further clarification of the expansion project may be made at that time.

Surprise of the evening was a visit by the Lion's District Governor, Waldo McCrea of Marquette, and L. St. Cyr, also of Marquette. District Governor McCrea outlined the activities of the Lions Clubs in national, state, district and local club projects.

Mild Weather Trend Continues

This is maple syrup weather, S. E. Decker of the Escanaba weather bureau states. Crisp freezing weather at night with temperatures between 10 and 15 rising to about 40 in the course of the afternoon.

This morning the early morning low was 14 and by 10 it had warmed to 31 with the prospect of reaching 40 late in the afternoon.

Prospects for tomorrow are much the same with an expected low of about 20 and high in the afternoon of about 40.

A high pressure ridge from around Hudson Bay is heading this way, says Decker, and will probably stay off a trend of rough weather heading east from Montana and Wyoming.

Very light rain has been falling at scattered points in the Missouri Valley early today. Colder air has moved in over the Pacific northwest and plateau areas, dropping temperatures in Oregon and Washington. It was also colder this morning in the northern section of Minnesota and Wisconsin and over most of Upper Michigan.

Elsewhere last night's temperatures were generally well above normal, except in the southeast and the upper Mississippi Valley where readings were slightly below normal averages. Freezing temperatures were confined mostly to the northeastern quarter of the state and to the Pacific northwest. Bemidji, Minn., reported a low of zero, International Falls, Minn., 4 above, Park Falls, Wis., 3 and Sault Ste. Marie 10, all among the lowest in the nation this morning. Yesterday's highs ranged from 20s in Maine to the 90s in Texas.

Marquette Prisoner Who Killed Fellow Inmate Sentenced

MARQUETTE—Eugene Wells, 35, Marquette Prison inmate who fatally stabbed a fellow inmate, Anthony Mazzone, 23, in an argument behind prison walls last July 24, was sentenced to serve four to 15 years in prison for manslaughter.

The sentence, imposed by Judge Leo J. Brennan, L'Anse, in Marquette County circuit court, will run concurrently with Wells' present life sentence for first-degree murder.

Wells was sentenced to life imprisonment in Detroit in October, 1949. He was transferred to Marquette Prison in 1940. Mazzone, who was involved in the Southern Michigan Prison riot at Jackson in 1953, was serving a 15-30 year term for kidnapping when killed.

Will Appeal Award For Loss Of Fox Hound At Menominee

MENOMINEE—The Municipal Court judgement of $275 awarded Robert Zeratsky, R1 Menominee, for the shooting of his fox hound on Jan. 5 was appealed to Menominee Circuit Court today by Reinhardt Ries of 1608—20th Avenue, reports Attorney Kenneth O. Doyle, counsel for Ries. The appeal will probably be heard at the April term of Circuit Court.

Zeratsky was granted $275 damages for loss of the dog in a decision by Municipal Judge Wilfred J. Menominee County Village Elections Cause Little Stir Incumbents were returned to office in Monday's elections in Menominee County's three incorporated villages, Stephenson, Daggett and Powers, in several cases without opposition. Voting was light in all three elections.

Only in Powers was there ballot opposition, but incumbents weathered the contests, with only 68 voters going to the polls. At Stephenson, all incumbents except for two offices of trustee were unopposed, and write-in voters had a jolly time of it, writing in the names of 16 different candidates. A total of 92 votes were cast at Stephenson.

In Daggett, only 19 persons voted, with the entire slate of incumbents unopposed for re-election.

Unofficial returns from Monday's elections in the three villages follow:

Cause Of Infant's Death At Marquette To Be Investigated

MARQUETTE—An investigation is being conducted to determine the cause of the death of a one-year-old baby girl, Linda Pauline Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bradley, Huron Bay Grade, Michigamme Township.

State Police Corporal Robert E. Rodgers, of the Marquette Post, said the child was declared dead on admittance to St. Luke's Hospital Sunday night. She was born Feb. 28, 1953.

Cpl. Rodgers, called into the case by Coroner Marvin P. Fassbender, said it appears as though death was due to accidental carbon monoxide poisoning, but added that no foul play was involved. The investigation, he emphasized, is to determine the exact cause of death.

Fumes Got Into Car

According to the parents, Cpl. Rodgers reported, they had gone into Michigamme about 2 Sunday afternoon and returned that night with the family, which includes six children. Rodgers listed their story as follows:

On the way into the village they kept the windows open because it was warm, but returning they had them closed because it was cold. On the way home the children got sick, with some vomiting. They discovered Linda was sick, and the father walked a half mile to a neighbor's house and got him to drive them to the hospital. The car became stalled several times on the rough road, as had Bradleys, on their way home.

Rodgers said the Bradley car, a 1931 model, had loose floorboards, and that there was no exhaust pipe. A short pipe at the end of the muffler was turned up, into the floorboards. Fumes evidently went into the car.

Airlift Of First Class Mail Is Good Service For U.P. Cities

THE experimental airlift of ordinary first class mail between the two peninsulas of Michigan should prove extremely beneficial to residents of Escanaba and other Upper Peninsula communities served by North Central Airlines.

The service being put into effect today will not actually make available any faster mail service than has been available previously. It does reduce the cost of transporting a letter by air from Escanaba to Detroit from the usual six-cent rate to the three cent per ounce ordinary mail rate. However, to guarantee that a letter will be transported by air mail local residents should still use the 6-cent airmail stamp.

The bulk of the first class mail between Escanaba and Lower Peninsula points served by North Central Airlines will be carried during this experimental period by air. It will serve to speed up delivery of first class mail by as much as 24 hours between Escanaba and Detroit.

A letter with ordinary postage of 3¢ mailed here today and addressed to a Detroit address will be dispatched by air, leaving Escanaba at 8:03 p.m. The letter should be delivered to the Detroit address

Words, Wit & Wisdom

By William Morris

Most of us wonder about the exact meanings of many words which we run across again and again in our reading but somehow never get around to using in conversation. Below you will find ten adjectives in common use, each taken from a recent issue of a widely circulated newspaper. How many of them can you use accurately in speech and writing?

Why not make a game of discriminating precisely the shades of meaning of each of these words? You can play the game yourself or try it with a group by having the questions read aloud—slowly to give every player a fair chance—with each contestant writing down his choice of the word or phrase closest in meaning to the key word. Then check your results against the answers below.

1.—Candid: (A) photographic, (B) frank and honest; (C) put up in cans.
2.—Fickle: (A) dripping drop by drop, (B) capricious, (C) fictional.

3.—Hypercritical: (A) theoretical, (B) extremely censorious, (C) inflated for flight.
4.—Lackluster: (A) impoverished, (B) without sparkle, (C) servile.

5.—Melancholy: (A) unfit for high office, (B) exasperated, (C) pensive and sad.
6.—Priggish: (A) everlastingly hungry, (B) prudish, (C) redundant.

7.—Primeval: (A) memorable, (B) exquisite, (C) of the earliest ages.
8.—Prudential: (A) well insured, (B) showing caution, (C) solid as Gibraltar.

9.—Tantamount: (A) equivalent, (B) of topmost importance, (C) highest in rank.
10.—Paradoxical: (A) extremely witty, (B) straightforward, (C) seemingly contradictory.

Answers: 1B, 2B, 3B, 4B, 5C, 6B, 7C, 8B, 9A, 10C.

How large is your vocabulary? How many thousands of words can you use with confidence? For the answers to these questions, just send a self-addressed stamped envelope to William Morris, in care of this paper, for a free copy of his new self-scoring vocabulary test. It will show you how many words you now know and how to increase your word power almost overnight.

The Doctor Says . . .
Institutionalizing Victim
Of Stroke Needs Much Study
By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

"Should an elderly person who has had three severe strokes affecting one side, his speech, and his mentality, be institutionalized?" asks Mrs. L. "Is the possibility of skilled care, which he would obtain under such circumstances, more helpful than keeping him at home with a relative who cannot give him expert care?"

Certainly the question of institutionalizing a person who has been so severely injured by several strokes should be seriously considered. Actually, it cannot be decided, nor can one say what the chances for recovery would be without much more information than Mrs. L. has supplied. The exact physical and mental condition would have to be known before judgment could be rendered, and common decency and compassion requires that the patient's desires also be followed, or at least consulted.

There are some remarks of a general nature which can be made about this sad and unfortunately fairly frequent condition.

The wood, "stroke" is used to describe the results of hemorrhage (bleeding) into the brain, or a clot in one of the blood vessels supplying the brain. It covers two related but different conditions—brain hem-

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

(Editor's Note—In his series on Eisenhower vs. McCarthy, Drew Pearson today reports on different administration concessions made for the purpose of trying to secure McCarthy's cooperation.)

WASHINGTON—When the Republican party threw a big cheese party for newsmen at the opening of congress, Joe McCarthy came up to John Foster Dulles, put his arm around his shoulder and said:

"Haven't I been good boy lately?"

What McCarthy referred to was the fact that he had laid off criticizing the State Department for a few weeks, partly as a result of a compromise agreement patched up with Vice President Nixon in Miami in December.

Nixon had urged McCarthy to lay off the witch-hunting and turn the problem of Communism over to Senator Jenner's internal security committee where it properly belongs. In turn, Nixon promised that Attorney General Brownell would turn over to McCarthy various cases of alleged graft and inefficiency which Nixon said would reflect on the Truman administration. Thus McCarthy would continue to get the headlines, though probing something that legitimately came under his government operations committee.

McCarthy agreed. But no sooner had he returned to Washington, and was asked by newsmen about the agreement, than he denied it.

JOE REMAINS SWEET

Despite the denial, however, McCarthy did live up to the agreement for about two weeks. Then quietly he handed Senator Welker of Idaho, sometimes called the "Junior McCarthy," a copy of a speech he, McCarthy, had prepared blasting Dulles' law partner, Arthur Dean, then special ambassador for the Korean peace talks.

Probably Secretary Dulles didn't know that the man who put his arm around his shoulder so affectionately at the GOP cheese party was the real author of that speech. And he may not know it even today.

But McCarthy had prepared the speech as a blast against Dulles last December after the Secretary of State had issued the most forthright statement so far made by any Eisenhower cabinet member against McCarthy after his nation-wide radio broadcast answering Truman.

It is not proper to assume, however, that all these were fired for disloyalty. Indeed, Young was unable to say how many were so discharged.

The total of 422 may include, for instance, men who left government service voluntarily, with no pressure on them to get out because of disloyalty.

In some cases, the subversive information may have been simply incidental and minor. The real reason for firing may have been drunkenness, or some other risky habit.

Some times the "flag" was on a worker's shirt because he had relatives behind the Iron Curtain, which presumably would make him a potential subject for blackmail.

And, of course, Young's figures do not show how many were fired and how many resigned.

So, really, all we have gained from this breakdown is a figure which might be termed an outside limit on the number of genuine subversives in government. Within that limit, the actual total of disloyal persons could conceivably range from 10 to 350 or more.

Since the topic of security firings was brought up by the Eisenhower administration with the evident intent of demonstrating its vigilance against subversion, the public is still entitled to know the exact truth about how many real subversives have been ousted.

Young's rough approximation is only a start in that direction.

APPEASING JOE

The above illustrates the basic problem President Eisenhower faces with Joe McCarthy. He faces first the fact that one wing of the Republican party is definitely, almost avidly, for McCarthy; second, the fact that McCarthy never stays put. He can be appeased one day; and one day later, or even one hour later, he's right back slugging at the man who appealed him.

The President himself and his administration have made no fewer than ten attempts to appease McCarthy beginning back in the days when he was running for President. Here is the roll-call:

Appeasement No. 1—Prior to Ike's Milwaukee speech, Tom Dewey persuaded him to include in the speech two paragraphs critical of McCarthy. When GOP Chairman Summerfield heard of this, he with three old guard senators, hired a special plane, caught up with Ike's campaign train and talked him out of it. However, Ike wrote into the speech a paragraph praising his old chief, Gen. George Marshall, whom McCarthy had castigated. Again Summerfield arranged for McCarthy to come up the back elevator of the Pere Marquette Hotel in Peoria where McCarthy talked Ike out of the Marshall praise.

Appeasement No. 2 occurred after Harold Stassen told McCarthy to keep his nose out of Greek ship problems. Vice President Nixon with White House blessing, persuaded Stassen to get together with McCarthy and eat crow.

Appeasement No. 3 was after the President's bird-bursting speech at Dartmouth. Next day McCarthy talked the White House out of broadcasting the speech over the Voice of America. He also got the President to issue a statement that the speech meant no reflection on McCarthy.

Appeasement No. 4—Attorney General Brownell whitewashed the unanimous senate report on McCarthy's peculiar financial transactions; also the senate report in the Maryland elections.

Appeasement No. 5—McCarthy's close friend, Robert E. Lee, who was implicated in the Maryland elections, was appointed to the Federal Communications Commission, making two McCarthy men on this key body.

The other cases of appeasement involved the Nixon attempt in Miami to "get Joe to be good"; Secretary of the Army Stevens retreat; and the President's own tone-down of his original proposed blast at McCarthy immediately following the Stevens' mix-up.

Nevertheless, some White House advisers still think they can appeal the senator from Wisconsin. And despite a growing group of advisers who tell him to the contrary, Mr. Eisenhower still follows the advice of the former.

RECOVERY CHANCES BRIGHT

Recovery often begins soon after the stroke itself. There is not much which can be done to hasten this recovery, but the earlier it starts the better the chances for complete recovery. Sometimes people can have what looks like a serious stroke and yet recover from the paralysis almost entirely. On the other hand there may be little paralysis at first, but a gradual worsening of the symptoms.

The outlook is now considered to be somewhat better in many than was true in the past. Methods of nursing care, physical therapy, and rehabilitation have been improved. Some victims of a stroke improve remarkably.

New Haven Again An Atlantic Coast Seaport

WASHINGTON — In mid-March a big ocean-going ship will head from Long Island Sound toward the Connecticut shore, move up a deep channel, and amid bellowing whistles, reopen the city of New Haven as a regular U. S. maritime port of call.

The ship will be the Isbrandtsen Company's 10,700-ton Flying Enterprise II. Its captain will be Henrik Kurt Carlsen, whose efforts to save the first Flying Enterprise, foundering in an Atlantic storm two years ago, made him a world hero.

For New Haven it will be a gala day. Clipper ships, deep-laden square riggers, and seal hunters once sailed from its wide harbor to far seas, the National Geographic Society says. But gradually railroads and the deepening keels of ships eclipsed the port. For 50 years New Haven has had no regularly-scheduled deep-sea commerce.

University City

Modern New Haven, best known perhaps as the seat of Yale University, actually is a manufacturing city. It produces goods ranging from guns and clocks to toys and zippers. Wholesale distributors there supply much of southern New England. Its metropolitan area holds over 250,000 people.

Diversified industry and true Yankee craftsmanship trace back to famous forebears. Eli Whitney, inventor of the cotton gin, fashioned muskets with interchangeable parts in New Haven in 1798 and revolutionized arms manufacture. Charles Goodyear, in 1846, spilled a hot kettle of gun and discovered the secret of vulcanizing rubber. New Haven built the world's first commercial telephone exchange in 1878.

The port's shipping did not die out completely. Gasoline, oil, coal, and lumber regularly come in by water in coastwise vessels and occasional large tankers. In 1949 and 1950 a $4,000,000 harbor project was initiated. Dredges deepened the ship channel and basin to 35 feet, sufficient for all but the largest liners. New Haven's shipping now averages over 6,000,000 tons a year, second in New England only to Boston.

Isbrandtsen's round-the-world cargo ships will call in the future as often as every three weeks, bringing goods from the West Coast and the Orient. Inaugurating the schedule, the Flying Enterprise II is due on March 17.

"The Great Shippe"

Until about 125 years ago, New Haven sent ships to Europe, the West Indies, and around Cape Horn to the Pacific. New Haven sealers hunted in the cold southern ocean. They dried the skins on a bleak beach in Patagonia that became known as "New Haven Green." Then, sailing west to China, they traded for cargos of lacquered ware, jaco silk, and spices.

Far earlier, in the first decade of New Haven's Puritan settlement, occurred a less happy venture. It produced one of sailors'

Snow Buries Seven

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Another skier was dead and a second missing after an avalanche buried seven German vacationers on the Manlitzkogel mountain near Saalbach, central Austria.

Five of the group from Hanover, Germany, freed themselves after the slide Monday. A sixth suffocated before he was dug out early today and the missing man was not expected to be found alive.

The dead skier was the 159th victim of winter avalanches in Austria.

Trout Disappear At Grand Marais

GRAND MARAIS (AP) — A disappointing 700-pound commercial catch of lake trout Tuesday led to belief that commercial fishing is on the downgrade in the area.

The catch, made by the Sellman Brothers of Manistique, showed a majority of the fish had been scarred by lamprey eels.

The Sellman tug was the first to leave Grand Marais Harbor this year.

It put out into Lake Superior last week and dropped the nets about five miles offshore. Commercial fishermen said the nets, which cover up to a mile, ordinarily would bring in several thousand pounds of lake trout in one haul.

The predatory lamprey has cut into the Great Lakes fishing industry in recent years. A federal appropriation for carrying out preventive measures has been exhausted. A congressional fight is being continued to obtain more funds.

Upper Peninsula Briefs

ISHPEMING — Representatives from every county in the Upper Peninsula attended the mid-winter meeting of the U. P. division of the Michigan State Pharmaceutical association, held Sunday in the Mather Inn, Joseph Shine, Chicago, editor of the Central Pharmaceutical Journal, spoke on the need for more modern merchandising methods in pharmacy.

MENOMINEE — Forty-two businesses displayed exhibits of "Made-in-Menominee" products in the Menominee High School gymnasium Tuesday afternoon as a prelude to the annual dinner and business meeting of the Menominee Chamber of Commerce, held in the evening.

NIAGARA — William L. Koloski, superintendent of Niagara schools for the past two years, submitted his resignation at a special meeting of the school board. The resignation was accepted and will be effective July 1, 1954, when his present contract terminates. No action was taken by the board on his successor.

IRON MOUNTAIN — Future installation and construction of television antennas within the city of Iron Mountain will be regulated by the new ordinance effected yesterday, the last day of the customary 21-day waiting period since its approval by the city council.

MENOMINEE — A two-inch fall of snow last night and early today brought temporary halt to the increasing number of grass fires in Menominee which reached a peak Monday with 15 reported in various parts of the City. At one time all available equipment of the Menominee Fire Department was out. Most spectacular fire Tuesday night was in Gateway park where the grass burned up the slopes at the interstate bridge approach and near the Tourist Information Lodge of the Michigan Highway Department.

City Band Reelects Collins As Director

Cecil Collins, director of the Escanaba Municipal Band, received the unanimous vote of the band members at the annual election held Monday evening at city hall. He has been director for the past year and was elected to serve for the ensuing year.

All other band officers were re-elected, including band manager Chet Marrier, president Pete LaDouceur, vice-president Lowell Sundstrom, secretary-treasurer Herb Peterson and custodian John DeChant.

Discussion of plans for the year was heard, and the band manager reported on the budget for the band. Rehearsals are now taking place every Monday evening beginning promptly at 7:30 in preparation for the concert series beginning in June. Director Collins urges all former band members to attend rehearsals, and also invites interested musicians to contact him if they are interested in joining the band.

Stevenson's Jibes At GOP Nonsense, Eisenhower Says

comment on Stevenson's criticism of the "new look" defense program. Eisenhower declared he never will do anything he feels is against the best security interests of the U. S., and added with much emphasis that he was not going to demagogue about it.

4. Repeated that he favors consideration of Hawaiian and Alaskan statehood bills separately. There is a move in the Senate sponsored by Democrats, to tie Alaskan statehood to a pending bill which would make Hawaii the 49th state.

5. Made it clear that he does not see at the present time that any good would come out of a four power conference of the United States, Russia, France and Great Britain. The President was told that Prime Minister Churchill of Britain had again advocated such a meeting. Eisenhower smiled and said he has disagreed with the Prime Minister in the past on some matters.

Leniency For Schwable

6. Commenting on the case of Col. Frank Schwable, who "confessed" during the Korean War that U. S. forces resorted to germ warfare, the President declared we should be careful to be understanding in judging such cases. He added that he had read that it is practically impossible for anyone to endure the type of brainwashing to which some of our men were subjected as captives.

7. Confirmed that he is telling everyone he can reach, as he put it, that he wants emphasis on the positive aspects of the administration's program. Negative things, he added, never make for happiness among people.

8. Touched off a laugh in remarking that he ought to be rapidly impeached if he got so rigid that he could not decide any matter in the best interests of the country. That was prompted by a question on whether he would disapprove any future international executive agreements which contravene the internal law of the country.

Swift Competition Deposes Leaders In American Industry

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (P)—Getting on top of the American corporate heap is more likely to make you a nice target for competitors than to give you a permanent seat.

Two-thirds of those on the list of the 100 largest industrial corporations 45 years ago are missing from today's top 100.

The swift pace of American business competition has wended them. And it goes on taking its toll year by year, as the top 100 shift regularly.

Swallowed By Mergers

Some of these 1909 industrial giants have gone out of business. Others have been swallowed up in mergers. But most have just fallen behind because other corporations were growing faster, the New York Stock Exchange points out in the March issue of its magazine, The Exchange, out today.

General Motors, now atop the industrial corporate heap, was only a year old in 1909. Ford, only a few years older, wasn't among the elite either. Only one rubber company and three oil companies place on both the early and current lists.

The age of motors, gasoline and tires has changed the industrial scene.

Chemical companies have come to the fore in recent years in like manner. Du Pont is the only present-day leader to make the top 100 in 1909.

Leadership mortality among the industrial giants over the years, according to the Brookings Institution, is due mainly to "the pressure toward innovation in product and market development."

Substitutes Spur

When a few firms dominate an industry for a time, they may find that smaller companies or outsiders have brought out substitutes and are shooting up like a school boy.

Here are the 36 durable leaders among the nation's 100 largest:

Allied Chemical, Allis-Chalmers, American Can, American Car & Foundry, American Smelting & Refining, American Tobacco, Anaconda Copper, Armour, Bethlehem Steel, Borden, Du Pont, Eastman Kodak, General Electric, International Harvester, International Nickel, International Paper, Jones & Laughlin, National Biscuit, National Distillers, National Lead, Phelps Dodge, Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal, Pittsburgh Plate Glass, Pullman, Republic Steel, Singer Manufacturing, Sears, Roebuck, Standard Oil (New Jersey), Swift, Texas Co., Tide Water Associated Oil, United Fruit, U. S. Rubber, U. S. Steel, Western Electric, Westinghouse Electric.

PERFECTED PERSON IN PERFECTED SOCIETY

We pause today to clarify the goal of the individual as perfection of character and life. This makes cheap the ordinary goal of human living—to get to heaven. In the New Testament, apart from the book of Revelation, heaven is spoken of twelve times as a place to which men go hereafter. But not once is it spoken of as the goal of life. But perfection is mentioned thirty-three times and always as the goal of life. Note:

And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ; till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ (Eph. 4:11-13).

Traffic Tickets Paid At Meters

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — Fuming drivers who wouldn't be caught dead in the police station to pay a parking fine have found salvation in the "Traf-o-teria."

The little device, installed recently on all parking meters here as an experiment, turns potential nonpayers of parking tickets into law-abiding citizens. Indications are it's going over big with the paying customers.

A motorist here receives a parking ticket and an envelope. If he puts the ticket and 50 cents into the envelope and places it in the Traf-o-teria, an aluminum box attached to the parking meter, the fine is considered paid. Wait 48 hours and the ante goes up to $1.

Police Chief Albert Dodd thinks the pay-as-you-drive boxes will be a bonanza in enforcement of the city's traffic codes.

"Used to be," reflected Dodd, "women were pretty reluctant to come to the station, and they'd give the tickets to their husbands, who chances are, would forget to pay them. Now the women pay better than men."

Overtime parking fines collected in the boxes during the first month of "Operation Traf-o-teria" totaled $400, Dodd said, a 135 per cent increase over the previous month's take.

Women Take Over Arkansas City

SALEM, Ark. (AP) — Politicians looked on the city elections here as "just a formality"—until the votes were counted and they discovered a Republican grandmother was the new mayor.

Mrs. W. E. Gishmiller headed a five-woman slate of candidates that took over City Hall after a successful write-in campaign. One of the Aldermen—C. C. Short—was beaten by his mother, Mrs. Retie Short.

Some Convicts Bored By TV

FOLSOM PRISON, Calif. (AP) — All California State prisons now have television, but many convicts still are bored. Warden Robert A. Heinze, acknowledging a gift of six TV sets from movie producer Walter Wanger, said Folsom was the last of the State prisons to acquire TV.

"Most of the prisoners like it," Heinze commented. "But a good many don't seem to be interested at all."

Fire Ends Hopes

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Flames Monday night disappointed a Latvian family in their hope of moving into their own home after years of wandering. A plumber's torch apparently ignited a partition, causing $1,000 loss to the house just bought by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Barkans.

U.S. Past Lives Again In Rebuilt Communities

WASHINGTON — At least ten communities rebuilt out of the nation's past are helping Americans today to understand their heritage.

These communities, where U.S. citizens see how their forebears lived, range from colonial capital to frontier settlement, from seaport to mining town, the National Geographic Society says.

Some have been created by assembling old buildings brought from other localities. Others are reproductions, often on original sites. A few comprise restorations of original structures.

Idea Spreads

Most famous is Williamsburg, political, cultural and social center of colonial Virginia for almost a century. Nearly fifty million dollars and 27 years of work have restored 82 old buildings and reconstructed more than 340 others. An additional fifteen million dollars recently was pledged to carry on the project.

The Williamsburg "idea" has spread far, influencing American architecture and taste. Restoring of old homes in Georgetown, D.C., and in nearby Alexandria, Va., has brought back an eighteenth century atmosphere.

The Independence National Historical Park Project will bring to life famous buildings near Independence Hall in Philadelphia, Annapolis, Md., rich in colonial relics, is undertaking large-scale restoration work. A group of buildings in Savannah, Ga., the Trustees' Garden Village, has become one of the country's best examples of an architectural re-vival.

Some 30 eighteenth century homes line the elm-vaulted streets of Deerfield, Mass., "a cradle of national character and ideals." Although there has increased markedly in recent years, Deerfield citizens anticipated the Williamsburg movement by half a century in forming a Memorial Association to protect their town's well-preserved past.

In the far West, several mining towns typical of the frontier, such as the gold-rush center of Columbia, Calif., and Virginia City, Nev., of Comstock Lode fame, are being "de-ghosted." Projects have been launched also at St. Augustine, Fla., oldest city in the United States.

Some authentic old buildings have been assembled to form "typical" early American settlements that never actually existed. They are found in Old Sturbridge and Sorrowton, Mass., Shelburne, Vt., and Cooperstown, N.Y.

Grabbag Of Americana

A similar project, Henry Ford's Greenfield Village at Dearborn, Mich., has recreated the horse-and-buggy era Ford helped to change. Homes and workshops of a number of famous Americans have been moved to the 200-acre community.

Mystic, Conn., has been remade into a typical nineteenth century New England seaport. An old sail loft, spar shed, shipsmith's shop, counting house, chapel and school,

Mrs. L. T. Vader
Re-elected Head
Of Jefferson PTA

Mrs. L. T. Vader was re-elected president of the Jefferson PTA at the March meeting of the unit held last evening at the school.

Associate officers for the coming year are Mrs. Len Dahl, 1st vice president; Mrs. Llewellyn Anderson, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Herbert Ladin, secretary; Mrs. Paul Paulsen, treasurer; Mrs. Roy Swanson, 1st council delegate; Mrs. Jack Krogdahl, 2nd council delegate; and Mrs. Harold Olsen, historian.

Projector On Display

The new movie projector purchased jointly by the PTA and the school board was on display. Jack Eden announced that tickets for the Columbus Boy choir will be on sale by the members of the Kiwanis and urged PTA members to attend as profits from the concert will be used to purchase equipment for the oral deaf room in the new John A. Lemmer Elementary School.

The program consisted of a panel of teachers discussing "How Your Child Learns to Read." Mrs. Ruth Swaby, teacher of first grade at Washington School discussed "How Do We Know When A Child Is Ready to Read". Miss Joyce Kopitzke, Webster school first grade, demonstrated how children are taught to read. Miss Edith Marinelle, first grade, Barr School, explained what is meant by phonics and how phonics are used in the teaching of reading. Miss Hazel Lindholm, Jefferson School second grade, discussed the reasons for different reading groups in a grade and Miss Jennie Maurina, Franklin school first grade, gave a number of "do's" and "don'ts" for parents who want to help their children learn to read better.

Play Has Purpose

Mrs. Swaby stressed the fact that much of what seems to be just playtime in kindergarten is actually purposeful activity designed to prepare a child for the complex task of learning to read. Miss Kopitzke's demonstration pointed up the fact that the child today learns to read whole words and phrases before he is introduced to the alphabet as such. She stated that at the end of the first year of learning to read the average child has been taught a reading vocabulary of 100 words.

Miss Marinelle expressed the idea that the teaching of phonics went from the extreme of phonics for the sake of phonics to no phonics and has now swung back to an acceptance of phonics as an aid in learning to read. The questions now are at what age level and how to teach it and how much to teach.

Miss Lindholm explained that a child is placed in the group that will be advancing at a comfortable pace for the child and where he will be happiest. She stated that a happy child learns more easily. She also pointed out that just as some people can bake better cakes and drive cars better so also will some children always learn to read better than others and parents should not be too concerned about it.

Other Units Represented

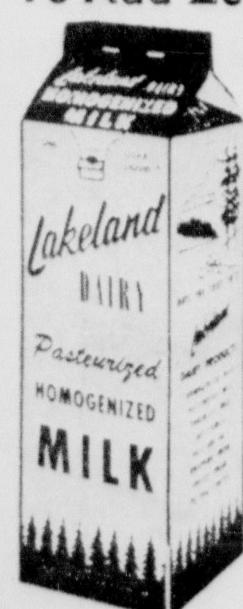

Miss Maurina pointed out a number of things parents can do to help their children learn to read. Among them were: don't frighten them about school, read to them, encourage them to read to themselves, and praise them. Mrs. Leonard acted as moderator.

A number of guests from other PTA units were present at the meeting.

Following the program refreshments were served by the third grade mothers. The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. Ernest Vanberghen, Mrs. Llewellyn Anderson, Mrs. Axel Anderson and Mrs. Leo Rahol. A telephone committee composed of Mrs. Rudolph Nelson, Mrs. Chester Clement, Mrs. Leonard Olson, Mrs. Ruby Swanson, Mrs. Ernest Vanberghen, Mrs. Myron Austad, Mrs.

Reducer Exercises, Partner Rests

By ROSEMARY CLOONEY

(Written for NEA Service)
While my husband was finding time to rest, I was finding the time to exercise.

Both of us, the doctor told us, required a certain amount of exercise each day as a form of relaxation and to tone muscles. Walking, he said, would do both of these things while affording us an opportunity to enjoy the fresh air.

Since Joe's work and hobbies require considerable exercise, he was advised to confine himself to sharing my walking periods.

The advice I received was quite different. Unfortunately, I am not athletically inclined. I do enjoy dancing and swimming, but I rarely indulge in other sports.

So part of the plan included a set of exercises for me. They are designed to tone the muscles of my stomach, waist and derriere and also to help me to maintain good posture.

I rather resisted taking the time out for exercising at first. But, then, I realized that as Joe combined resting with reading I could combine exercising with singing.

The 15-minute periods each morning and night really go quite quickly. And the results in trim waist and stomach have sold me completely.

INGREDIENTS: $\frac{1}{2}$ cup tomato juice, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon quick-cooking rice cereal, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup grated American cheese, 3 eggs separated.

Method: Place tomato juice and salt in saucepan and heat to scalding. Sprinkle in quick-cooking rice cereal, stirring constantly until thickened. Cover and simmer over low heat for 3 minutes. Remove from heat and stir in butter and grated cheese. Beat egg yolks until lemon colored and gradually pour in the rice mixture, stirring constantly. Allow to cool. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry and cut and fold into rice mixture. Pour into buttered 1-quart deep baking dish. Bake in a slow (325°F) oven until puffed high and a rich golden brown, about 35 to 40 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

Here's a trick to keep in mind when you are making potato pancakes. After you spoon the potato mixture onto the skillet or griddle, flatten the pancakes with the back of a spoon. This will make them thinner and crispier.

Ernest Kleiman and Mrs. Paul Bureau had charge of issuing invitations to the meeting. Room count was won by the sixth grade.

Bark River-Harris Junior Play Is Unqualified Success

"Billy", the comedy presented by the Bark River-Harris juniors Monday and Tuesday night at William Kell Auditorium at Wilson was enthusiastically received by capacity audiences. The financial awards were satisfying and the artistic contribution was noteworthy.

The situations were funny, the principals well characterized. The various off-stage effects of light and sound called forth the ingenuity of a sizable supporting personnel. Some roles were double cast to widen the base of class participation.

The title role was carried with versatility by Joe Scherner as the agonized loser of a set of false teeth without which he cannot converse with his hoped-for fiancee, Alice Hargrave as the devoted young sister was convincingly portrayed by Louise Gauthier and Pat Gauthier. John Hargrave, the pompous executive, was given an excellent portrayal by David Chernik.

Mrs. Hargrave, the socially minded mother of Alice and Billy, was adequately interpreted by Eleanor Charbonneau and Barbara LaFleur. Mrs. Sloane, the mother of Beatrice, was effectively acted by Evelyn Bergstrom and Catherine DeLoach, both providing some of the big laughs of the performance.

The winsome young Beatrice was played with appeal by Margaret Gardner and Lois Good. A vigorous portrayal of Sam Eustace with strong audience appeal was effected by Micky Giovacki. The boatswain was given an original and effective interpretation by Roy Chaulkline and the sailor, a good bit part, was well handled by Teddy Cota and Ronald Kleinman. Wayne Erickson doubled versatility as Captain Steward. The stewardess, a dialect part, acted by Joan Gustafson and Marlene Piontek brought peals of laughter from the audience. Lloyd

County Library Program Topic At Daggett PTA Meeting

DAGGETT—The Daggett PTA met Monday night, March 8, in the assembly room in the school. Miss Pearl Peterson, acting librarian of the Menominee County Library, spoke about the work, aims, and problems of the library.

PTA members were impressed with the work of the Bookmobile which serves all the schools in the area, institutions, and individuals who are unable to get to the library for books.

In addition, Miss Peterson mentioned eight districts which have been made stations for the County Library: Daggett, Powers, Garden, Faithorn, Nadeau, Wallace, Spalding, and Cedar River. Books desired which are not available through this library can be secured by the library from the State Library. The State Library prefers to work through the local libraries, she said, rather than with the individual.

In closing, Miss Peterson read "Lo The Poor Teacher" from "Heaven in My Hand." A twenty-five minute question and answer period followed.

Baked Creamed Cod Makes Delicious Meal During Lent

BAKED CREAM COD served Gloucester, Mass., style, is a real sea-food treat.

Fish and hospitality — that's what we enjoyed in the old fishing town of Gloucester, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Bundy entertained us in their large, easy-going home overlooking the Reef of Norman's Woe—that's the reef Longfellow wrote about in "The Wreck of the Hesperus."

Sales Of GM Set Record In 1953

NEW YORK — Ten billion dollars in sales, more than 13 $\frac{1}{2}$ billions in taxes, \$38 millions in profits—that's the record of General Motors Corp. for 1953.

The sales of $10,027,985,482 were the highest in history for any private corporation and eclipsed by a wide margin the $7,549,154,419 in 1953, previous record for GM or any other firm.

Net income of $598,119,478 was only the third highest for the giant auto manufacturer but GM kept its position as biggest money maker in American industry, topping 1953 earnings of $53 million by Standard Oil Co. (N.J.) and $491 million for the Bell Telephone System.

Taxes Take Slice

Direct taxes of $1,237,000,000 plus $661,000,000 collected by GM in sales and excise taxes came to $1,898,000,000 equivalent to $21.77 a share of common stock, compared with net income of $6.71 a share.

"Earnings continued to be adversely affected by excess profits taxes and in 1953 earnings also were affected by higher material costs, particularly higher premium steel costs, higher labor costs including large amounts for overtime premiums, and increased costs for special tools," said the annual report.

The report to GM's 495,000 stockholders, by Harlow H. Curtice, president, and Alfred P. Sloan Jr., chairman of the board, reported the company sold 3,760,000 passenger cars and trucks in 1953 against 2,629,000 in 1952. Of 1953 U. S. and Canadian factory sales for passenger cars, GM had 45.7 per cent.

RECEIVES TRAVELING CASE—William Skellenger was presented with a number of gifts including a valuable traveling case from fellow bowlers at a Chamber of Commerce dinner Tuesday evening at the Lincoln Hotel honoring him as Gladstone's Sports King. Petition Asks State Keep Highway Route

Petitions asking continuance of the main highway through Gladstone in its present location and bearing the signatures of 806 persons were presented to the City Commission at a regular meeting Monday night.

The petitions, sponsored by a group of local business men, were presented by Rev. Theophil Hoffmann of the Gladstone Chamber of Commerce.

The petition specifically asked retention of Highways US 2 & 41 and M-35 within Gladstone in their present locations for economic reasons.

Present in connection with the petition were H. B. Markham, Soren Johnson, Marvin Larson, Rev. Hoffman, Loyal Hanson, Charles DuRoy, Mike Goodman and Walter Tang.

Johnson and Goodman spoke briefly citing the economic value of the highways to the city and Markham also spoke briefly.

The petitions were accepted by the commission and placed on file for future reference. Interested persons were assured by the commission that the commissioners were "with them."

Copies of the petition have been presented to the Michigan Highway Department, Markham said.

This petition was designed to counteract a petition presented several weeks ago which protested the widening of the Highway on Ninth St. particularly on N. 9th.

Taking a page in the Delta County Tourist Guide at a cost of $140 was approved.

Mayor Michael LaPine was asked to make recommendations as to membership on a 3-man industrial committee.

Hospital Issue Will Be Voted On April 5

The question of forming a hospital authority for the purpose of building a community hospital will be placed before the electors at the annual city election on April 5, it was decided by the Gladstone City Commission in meeting Monday night.

It was resolved to join with the Townships of Bay de Noc, Cornell, Ensign, Nahma, Maple Ridge and Wells in the formation of the authority. Approval by any two of the cities or townships mentioned would make the Hospital Authority.

Commissioner Stowe then moved the resolution be adopted and placed to a vote at the April 5 election. Kelley seconded and the vote was unanimous.

Wording of the proposal:

"Be it hereby resolved that the City of Gladstone, County of Delta and State of Michigan, join with the following cities, villages and townships, to-wit: City of Gladstone, Township of Bay de Noc, Township of Cornell, Township of Ensign, Township of Nahma, Township of Maple Ridge and Township of Wells to form a Hospital Authority for the purpose of planning, promoting, acquiring, constructing, improving, enlarging, extending, owning, maintaining and operating either within or without the corporate limits of this city and to do such further acts as may be lawful and in conformity with Act 47 of the Michigan Public Acts of 1945 as now amended and as amended from time to time hereafter."

"Such Hospital Authority shall have the right to tax the participating cities and townships for sum of money not to exceed 4/10 mill of their assessed valuation as last equalized which may be requested and certified by the Hospital Board annually for the purpose of planning, promoting, acquiring, constructing, improving, enlarging, extending, owning, maintaining and operating one or more community hospitals and that such sum or any portion thereof may be pledged by the government body of the Hospital Authority for the payment of revenue bonds under Act 94 of the Public Acts of 1933 as amended being sections 141.101 to 141.139 inclusive of the Compiled Laws of 1948."

"The said Hospital Authority shall become operative upon adoption by any two of the aforesaid cities, villages or townships or any combination thereof."

"In order for this resolution to be operative, this resolution must be acted upon by April 5, 1954."

"Adam Sinclair shall be and he is hereby appointed to serve on the governing body of such hospital."

"As a part of this resolution, this City hereby agrees to contract with the Hospital Authority for the hospital care of indigent or other patients to whom such services are furnished at public expense and make payment for such services."

"IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Commission of the City of Gladstone has at a regular meeting of its legislative body held on March 8, 1954, duly approved and ratified the foregoing resolution to become and the same does become a participating unit under such hospital authority."

In This Corner

With Ray Crandall

During regular season competition the St. Joe Trojan cagers lost three games to Upper Peninsula teams . . . And those three teams came through the past weekend with district championships . . . Escanaba won the B district at Gladstone, Munising won the B district at Sault Ste. Marie and Rapid River copped D honors at Rock.

The regional tournaments came up with some odd assignments this year . . . Houghton, a Class C district winner, will play at Negaunee while Negaunee, a Class B district champion, will be in action at Houghton.

Houghton, incidentally, has been in the regional tournament four of the five years that Coach John Gaffney has been coaching the Gremlins . . . Last year Lake Linden knocked Houghton out of the district tournament and the Gremlins gained revenge by trimming the Whizz Kids 67-44 for the title Saturday night . . . Houghton opened the district finals with an all-underclass starting lineup . . . Leading scorers for Houghton in the district were forward Juan Mentink who scored 31 points in the semifinals against Painesdale and guard Ralph Hurley who hit 30 in the finals.

Pickford's Dean Rye won individual scoring honors in the Upper Peninsula district tournaments when he flipped 41 points through the nets while his team was defeating Cedarville 66-44 in the Class D tourney at Sault Ste. Marie . . . Rye scored 16 field goals and nine free throws.

Although Gwinn was defeated by Felch, 57-51, in the district Class D finals at Marquette, high-scoring Barry Mussatto more than held his own in the point-department . . . The classy junior ace hit for 30 points . . . And the U.P.'s top scorer for the season, John Zelezniak, put 23 points through the nets while his Amasa team was losing to Alpha, 45-38.

Perkins, Rapid River Enter Tourney Action

Two Delta county teams will swing into action in regional basketball tournament tomorrow night at 8:30. Marenisco is Gerovac's home town and the possibility for the two teams meeting in the finals has attracted considerable attention in that community.

Coach Keith Hindes' Rapid River Rockets are representing the school in a regional tournament for the first time in over 10 years. The high-scoring Rockets will be facing a team that defeated the tough Gwinn quint in the district finals.

If they win, both teams will return to the courts for championship games on Saturday afternoon at 2.

For Coach Tom Gerovac's Perkins team it will be the second time in five years for a chance at the Class E title. Gerovac took his team into the regional tourney in 1950 but lost in the final.

Perkins has played Grand Marais twice in regular season action. Each team won once. Perkins by 64-59 and Grand Marais 58-50. Perkins has a 9-12 record entering the regional and the school has never come through with an Upper Peninsula championship.

Marenisco, in the regional tournament for the fourth straight year, will meet Alpha in the other semifinal Class E game.

Knickerbockers Near Eastern Cage Crown

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The New York Knickerbockers defeated the Milwaukee Hawks, 72-65, Tuesday night and now need only one victory over the Lakers at Minneapolis tonight to clinch no worse than a tie for first place in the National Basketball Assn.'s eastern division.

The Knicks potted 32 free throws to beat the Hawks as each team hit for 20 field goals.

The Rochester Royals downed the Milwaukee 70-61, but the Lakers still lead the western division by three games.

Rookie Infielder Is Cleveland Bat Star

By BEN OLAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

Rookie Rudy Regalado, an infielder by trade and a terrific hit by the looks of things, is the player they're all talking about in the camp of the Cleveland Indians.

Regalado, 23, connected for two home runs and a pair of singles Tuesday as the Indians walloped the Chicago Cubs 17-6.

In 22 times at bat this spring, he's collected 13 hits for a .591 average. He's hit five homers and batted in 11 runs.

He's had only a year of professional experience. He played most of last season with Reading of the Eastern League, where he batted .325. Then he was sent to Indianapolis.

Rosie Belts Homer
Actually, he is still on the Indianapolis roster, but if he keeps up his present pace he's a cinch to stick with Cleveland. He has played second and third base.

a best-of-five series for the play-off cup.

For their final home showing tonight the Hawks will be at full strength with Ben Artwich in the nets and Julius Artwich, Ben's kid brother, bolstering the defenses in the absence of Hubert Hamilton.

Calumet's colorful Radars will also be strengthened by the return of veteran Johnny Whittaker, who had announced his "retirement" early in the season. Remainder of Calumet's lineup will be intact.

Portage To Be Here

Mark Olson, Hawks' player-coach, announced today that Portage Lake will play with the team during the championship playoffs.

Last night the Hawks stayed with the Pioneers for one period but couldn't contain the league champions in the second and third. Mike Bukovich scored for Portage Lake and Ted Olson hit the net for the Hawks in a 1-1 first period knot.

But Tony Bukovich scored twice and Mike hit his second goal in the second period to give the Pioneers a 5-1 lead. The Pioneers scored three more in the third before Joe Ricci collected Escanaba's final goal on a pass from Mark Olson at 16:21. Tony Bukovich completed the hat trick with his third goal at 17:22.

Tigers Win On Rookie's Triple

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—Rookie Harry Bright, whose dramatic ninth-inning triple gave the Detroit Tigers their first triumph of the spring exhibition season Tuesday, is a much-traveled young man.

Bright, one of a fistful of players battling for the wide open second base job, is only 24. But despite his youth, the 6-foot, 185-pound righthanded hitter could well rival the baseball travels of that ancient wanderer Bobo Newsom.

Bright's latest trip sent him to third base on a hit to the centerfield screen, scoring Johnny Bucha. The triple gave Detroit a 6-5 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Bright has been playing professional baseball since he turned 16. He began his career as a farmhand with the New York Yankees. He moved to the Chicago Cub's farm system. Then came the Chicago White Sox and now the Tigers. He has been on the rosters of 15 teams and managed one of them for the Cubs. He has played every position except pitcher.

His best year was 1951 when he hit a blazing .413 and drove in 109 runs to win every title in sight with a Chicago Cubs farm club.

The Tigers picked up Bright in the annual draft last December.

Lefty Teddy Gray will take the mound today as the Tigers try to avenge a pair of 7-3 losses pinned on them by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Gail Peters of Walter Reed Hospital Swimming Club, Washington, D.C., set 13 AAU records during 1953.

Spartans Were Nearly Skunked By Wolverines In Winter Sports Slate

EAST LANSING (AP)—The Michigan State basketball team, even with its eighth place ending in the conference standings, at least saved the Spartans from being skunked by rival Michigan during the winter sports season.

Michigan had won dual meet decisions in swimming, wrestling and gymnastics. The Wolverine hockey team had won three from MSC and tied one.

An earlier basketball victory threatened to give the Ann Arbor rivals a clean sweep for the winter season. But the 76-61 Michigan State margin in the final basketball game for both schools saved MSC the humiliation of being beaten in every winter sport.

After a recent Michigan State hockey game, one of the players was explaining why the puck chasers are involved in so many decisions meet this weekend.

Rintz, a 20-year-old junior from Quarrytown, Pa., learned his gymnastics at Girard College, in his home state.

Last year, as a sophomore, he had three firsts in the Big Ten meet, taking the conference title in the flying rings, horizontal bars and side horse.

"His marvelous coordination makes him great," said gymnastics coach George Szypula. "And, of course, he puts in a lot of hard work and practice."

"There generally are no hard feelings after the fights," the player said.

"Unless, of course," he added, "someone takes a stick to you. A punch you can forget, but you're likely to carry a grudge about being slammed with a stick."

You wouldn't think a bespectacled fellow who stands five feet six inches and weighs just 138 pounds would be any kind of a champion.

But that's the physical description of Michigan State's Carl Rintz, who is bound to make some headlines in the Big Ten gymnastics meet this weekend.

Fueling Of Jets In Air Studied

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force may turn to swift, jet-powered tanker planes to provide mid-air refueling for the new B52 all-jet heavy bombers of the Strategic Air Command.

The eight-engine B52s are expected to begin coming off the production line late this year.

Mid-air refueling for medium B47 jet bombers is standard practice. All tankers now used are piston-engined aircraft, the KC97 Boeing Stratofreighter.

Airmen are highly pleased with the current method of replenishing jet bombers and fighters in mid-flight. But they also say that a loss in efficiency, in time and in fuel, will always exist when a jet bomber refuels from a piston-engined tanker. The reason:

A jet engine performs best at high altitude, where the air is thin. A piston-engined aircraft produces more power at lower altitudes. The B47 usually cruises at 30,000 feet or above. The KC97, totting a hefty 6,000 or 7,000 gallons of jet fuel in addition to its own gasoline, has a practical ceiling for refueling of about 20,000 feet. To refuel, the bomber must descend 10,000, then climb back with the accompanying high fuel consumption rate for a climb.

Ancient Rome Sparks Economic Aid For Syria

AP Newsfeatures

DAMASCUS, Syria—The American Near East Foundation has turned to ancient Roman wells in a program to restore some of the enterprise which made Syria one of the rich provinces of the Roman Empire.

The privately financed agency has been working since World War I on aid to poor countries similar to that which has had a lot of public attention since World War II. One of its recent projects brought clean water to the village of Zaskia for the first time since the Romans left.

The objective is to help the people help themselves. Almost five feet of filth was dredged from the bottoms of the wells and surface trash cleaned away. In the debris were human bones, bits of pottery and glass and other accumulations of hundreds of years.

Then a Syrian-made pump and a cement well head were installed. Repairs can be made locally. Women who had dredged a mixture of sediment and water out of the wells all their lives now fill their jars with clean water.

The foundation has a staff of 3 Americans and 36 Syrians in this country and also has pro-

Wine Capital Rejects Liquor By The Glass

PAW PAW (AP) — This Michigan wine capital isn't going to change and start serving liquor by the glass. Neither is Vicksburg, in nearby Kalamazoo County. Paw Paw's turnaround vote was 242-62 and Vicksburg's, 272-149.

But Augusta voted in Monday's village elections to permit liquor sales by the glass. The vote was 150 to 50.

Dry Sundays Voted

VERMONTVILLE (AP)—A proposal to prohibit sale of beer and wine in this Barry County community between 2 a.m. and midnight Sunday was approved in Monday's election 141 to 74.

jects in Greece and Iran. The programs get down to grass roots and provide only what the villagers can do for themselves. Besides the wells, the foundation sponsors plans to dry fruit to preserve it, creation of better tools, training of midwives. Peasants learn to bring running water into mud huts, build concrete sinks and provide sanitation.

Staff members say their work in four villages has fanned out to influence 32 others.

Tons Of Rubber Going To Waste

KUALA LUMPUR (AP) — Thousands of acres of rubber in the hinterland of Sumatra planted as early as 1926 never have been tapped, according to Sir Sydney Palmer, former chairman of the United Planting Association of Malaya, who recently toured the Indonesian island.

Labor would not go into the areas to tap even at the height of the boom, he said. Rubber stealing was rife and the extent of illicit tapping was unbelievable.

At Serdang he said he saw tons of stolen rubber lying by the roadside.

Workmen Crushed

IRAPUATO, Mexico (AP) — The walls of a government-leased warehouse collapsed Monday under the weight of shelled corn stacked against them and 13 workmen were crushed to death.

The roof fell in and the workmen were buried under sacks of corn and the roof's heavy tiles.

The food subsidy agency was using the warehouse to store a bumper crop in this farming region 200 miles northwest of Mexico City.

New Floor Care Ends Waxing

One of the most difficult jobs of housekeeping is to keep linoleum and asphalt tile floors waxed and gleaming. Now, thanks to Glaxo, it is no longer necessary to wax and scrub. All you do is apply Glaxo with a brush about twice a year. It maintains a high lustre, non slip coating that seals out dirt. Glaxo dries in one hour and is water clear. It's cheaper than wax in the long run, besides saving a terrific amount of work, plus truly a beautiful floor. Glaxo is available at the Fair Store, Escanaba. (Adv.)
